HOPE TO PEAT NOTRE DAME

LAFAYETTE BOYS WILL MEET AN-CIENT ENEMY ON THANKSGIVING.

Earlham College Players Are Beginming Preparations-Get Instruction by Mail.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LAFAYETTE, Ind., Aug. 18 .- The football will beat the text book to Purdue University this year. Preparations for the greatest football season in the history of the university are now completed, and in a few days the team will mobilize for its training trip up the Tippecanoe river. On or about Aug. 26 the team will go to a clubhouse that has been rented by the Athletic Association, two miles from Delphi, and there the team will regale itself in Harvard football tactics till the opening of school. Coach Cutts will arrive before the first of the month and will devote his time to drilling the team in preliminary practice. Manager Leslie has just completed superintending the greatest improvement ever made to Stuart Field. An iron fence, erected at the cost of over $1,000, has been the wire. The fence may be called a "clear that there is no obstruction between the follows: field and the outside of the fence. However, the management will stretch canvas where there is an opening between the bleachers. The manager of the Athletic Association takes a philosophic view of the dianapolis. situation, and he will probably save money by it. Leslie says no man will stand outside the fence and refuse to pay a quarter to see a game. The students, who are very speak their minds, will expose anyone who COGSWELL'S proposes to peek through the fence. FIELD IS IMPROVED.

On the field the bleachers have been moved into an alignment outside the side lines and the field has been improved. The bicycle track, which is now useless in connection with track athletics, has been removed and the gravel that composed the sloping ends has been removed to fill in low spots inside the fence. The west end of the field has been graded and a roadway has been built by the students for the accommodation of the Purdue farm. The grand stand has been improved and the score stand moved into a more conspicuous place. In fact, returning students will hardly know Stuart Field.

ments, however, is the experiment, attempted by Manager Leslie, of draining the on the field the team had to drain it off or Grand Rapids107 place straw upon it. Before the Thanksgiving day game last year the snow was on Stuart Field a foot deep and the plow helped matters little. Three wagon loads of straw were scattered all over the field, and this soaked up considerable of the water. But this year the field has been perforated with "sinkholes." Manager Leslie has sunk perforated plates on top of a long tile into the ground in all of the low places of the field. The plates are set into the ground so that the earth may cover them, and the water may trickle down through and percolate through the gravel bed beneath. The sinkholes will solve the problem of rainy weather, according to Manager Leslie, and whenever a game is scheduled there will be no standing water to interfere with it. The increased attendance at Purdue University this year should bring ample new material for football purposes. Coach Cutts has a reputation of making something out of nothing in a football way, and it is not unlikely that he will make the best of the new stuff. The interest in the city and in the university has been heightened through the playing of the team last year, and the possibility of winning the State pennant this year. Manager Leslie, who was seen on Stuart Field in his overalls to-day, said he was out of the game this year and could not brag upon the playing qualities of the team with any degree of self-laudation, but he would wager that the university on Dayton 0 0 2 0 1 0 3 2 0-814 3 Leslie has completed the schedule and announces it officially as follows: Sept. 20-Culver Military Academy, at Lafayette Oct. 3-Franklin, at Lafayette. Oct. 10-Chicago, at Chicago.

Oct. 17-Illinois, at Lafayette. Oct. 24-Oberlin, at Lafayette. Oct. 31-Indiana, at Indianapolis. Nov. 7-Northwestern, at Lafayette. Nov. 14-Kentucky University, at Lexing-

Nov. 21-De Pauw, at Lafayette. Nov. 28-Notre Dame, at Lafayette. This year Purdue expects to be in fighting trim by the time the Chicago game is due. Coach Cutts, who was famous at Harvard, will arrive from the East in a few days to confer with Manager Leslie upon the prospects of the season, and to get a Chicago Golf Club Hoists the Union line on the material. Cutts will accompany the team to the retreat on the Tippecanoe, and will begin early to drill Crimson tactics into the boilermakers.

In the minds of every football follower in Indiana was easy, Purdue defeating the State University boys by a score of 29 to 0. duplicating Chicago's defeat earlier in the season. On Thanksgiving day Purdue and Notre Dame broke even, 6 to 6, and while the Irish from South Bend were practically beaten, they held the championship won from Indiana the year before. This year Notre Dame will return to Purdue, and again on Stuart Field, and on Thanksgiving day the deciding game of the season will be played. While Indiana is practically out of the running, so far as Notre Dame and Purdue are concerned, the game at Indianapolis between I. U. and Purdue will attract attention from all over the State. The outcome of that game, which will be played the last of October, is practically decided now, for while Purdue has remained strong Indiana has suffered by the loss of him. The draw follows:

WILL PLAY NOTRE DAME. The treat of the season will be the last game. Notre Dame retains old men, as does Purdue, and both teams have the same advantage in the development of new material. If anything Purdue was stronger then Notre Dame last year, but Irish pluck and traditional Notre Dame courage defeated the weaker spirit from Purdue. Purdue loses Long John Miller, who will coach Eartham this year. Hohn, of Indianapolis, will be among the missing, and Boyer, the big guard, will probably not be back. Osborne, the clever quarter, will captain the team this year. Osborne played with Oberin three years ago, and remained in Purdue a year before he entered the football department. Of the old men who will reappear this year are George Miller, Hamilton, Emeis, Allen, Riebel, McManus, Furr, Paull, Long, Kruil, F. Miller and Mills. Allen, perhaps the greatest tackle Purdue has had in recent years, and a candidate for captain of the 1904 team, has been working with a construction gang all summer, and is in the best shape for the season's work. Long, who was out a part of the time last year, will return with his brother this year. Long's brother has been sought by Indiana, but Purdue is assured hat both of the boys, who are from the center, and either is worthy the place. Riebel will play tackle, though last year he was deevloped into a strong guard. Riebel is faster than a guard and will be more valuable at center. McManus, who won the Northwestern game, and who is playing his last year on the team, will again be seen at tackle. There is some talk of the return of Vivo Smith, who was three and four years ago accorded the place of tackie on the all-Indiana team. Krull and Mills will be developed into ends, and Paull will probably do the kicking for the team.

The absence of Leslie will be felt, more especially in the kicking department. Leslie has decided to devote his time to the management of the athletic association, and will not be seen in moleskins. The training quarters at Purdue are being fitted up and by the end of the month the squad room will be in shape, the baths will be installed and a complete training return of the team. EARLHAM IN THE RACE.

Nearly All the Old 'Varsity Men Will Be on the Team Again.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. PAOLI, Ind., Aug. 18 .- Manager Stout, who lives here, is making extensive preparations for the Earlham College football season. He says that Earlham never had better prospects for a winning season. At least seven of last year's 'varsity will be back and nearly every one of the reserves. The old 'varsity men who will try to retain their places on the team are: Captain Stanley, Clark, Brunson, Hetrick, Leggett, C. Macy and Hobbs. Much will be expected from these players. Last season they did not meet their equals in their class. A game has been arranged this season for the reserves with Shortridge High School. Several of the new candidates are on the list, all whom are men of experience, coming from schools such as Kansas City High School, Fairmont Academy, Spiceland Academy and Washington College.

Coach Miller is giving the players individual instructions by mail and all the candidates are expected to report for practice on Monday, Sept. 14. It is not expected that Earlham's team will be one of weight, but it will be one of speed and science. No other team in the State will have better equipment. Every 'varsity player will be fitted out with the best and latest equip-

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Aug. 18 .- Although outbatted, the Hoosiers made monkeys of the Millers this afternoon in the opening game of the series, and Indianapolis won out handily by a score of 8 to 5.

In one department of the game the Yeagerites outshone the Indians. This was at the bat, but when this is said there is nothing more to tell in favor of the home aggregation. In fielding, base running and allaround baseball ability the Hoosiers had Yeager's tossers beaten by a mile.

Nevertheless the visitors were entitled to a greater portion of their tallies. The way they sprinted around the bases fairly stunned the local rooters. Hogriever did the chief stunt of the afternoon on the sacks. With Hoggie at third and Heydon on second in the third round R. Williams hit Woodruff with a pitched ball. The sphere went to the grand stand. Maloney walked back, and picking up the ball tossed it to the pitcher. Although Maloney was twenty feet away from his position the pitcher took his place in the box with the next batter up. Seeing the home plate un-covered Hogriever dashed home before Maloney could get to the plate to receive the throw. Heydon and Woorduff also purloined a base each on the same play. The Hoosiers played brilliant ball in the field. Tamsett at third made two marvelous left-hand stops and Fox pulled down the hardest kind of a foul fly far back of first. A sensational catch by Lilly and two splendid stops of stiff grounders by McIntyre

WESTERN MEN WIN

Defeat the Eastern Cracks at the Tennis Tournament.

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 18.-Kreigh Collins and L. H. Waidner, the Western doubles champions, furnished the sensation of the first day of the national lawn tennis tournament on the Casino courts to-day by winning a straight set victory over Holcombe Ward and Leo E. Ware, the Eastern champions. Great credit is due to Collius for his brilliant work, he making many more plays; than any of the others without making more errors. One of the strongest factors in the victory was Collins's service, which he won every time throughout the match. Waldner was steadier than was expected and backed up Collins in excellent shape. Ward and Ware, on the other hand did not play the game shown earlier in the season. Except in the third set, when they got the lead four games to one, they did not exhibit the form displayed at Longwood. Ware was particularly unsteady in the opening set, but improved later in the match. Ward played a fairly even game, but lacked force in all his strokes and particularly in Sixth—Six furiongs; selling: Andrattus, 2 his service. The feature in the singles was to 1, won; Cranesville, even, second; The Stewardess, 20 to 1, third. Time, 1:13%. Wright, which went to the Philadelphiar. nding in a runaway. Wright was clearly off his game and never once showed up at his best. Except in the first set, which he wen, 6-4, he did not make a creditable stand. and in the last set he was outpointed two to one, winning only a single game.
